VILLA JULIE COLLEGE 1979

ECD

A Place For All Seasons

"... time for all the works and days of hands
That lift and drop a question on your plate;
Time for you and time for me,
And time yet for a hundred indecisions,
And for a hundred visions and revisions ..."

T. S. Eliot

Since joining the administrative staff at Villa Julie College, two women have won the affection, admiration, and respect of the entire student body and faculty. Linda Ciotola, Director of Student Activities, and Lois O'Brien, Dean of Students, have worked loyally, unselfishly, and tirelessly in their commitment to the values and standards established at Villa Julie.

Linda and Lois are to be recognized for their ability to lift a student member to the stature of a human being, complete with thoughts and problems. Through their efforts, many problems vanished and many ideas were guided into proper channels, where they were nurtured to fulfillment.

In appreciation for their time and patience, their openness and integrity, we respectfully dedicate the 1979 Seven Oaks to Linda Ciotola and Lois O'Brien, two women who have helped us to grow during our two years at Villa Julie College. Our hearts hold a special place for them as we wish them luck and good fortune during the future.
